PRÖLIFIC REPÖRTER

PUBLISHED BY THE SBA

February 2, 1987.

Deadlines

The deadline for submitting articles for publication in the PR is and has been noon, on the Thursday previous to the date of publication. A couple of articles have missed being published as a result of this deadline, so please keep it in mind. Also, it would be greatly appreciated if all announcements were submitted on full size paper, since smaller pieces or cards tend to get lost or go unnoticed. Thank you.
-Ed.

More Deadlines

February parking is due no later than Thursday, Feb. 5 at 4:30 pm. There will be no more wait lists for parking. From now on, each student who needs parking should check in the Security office the 5th working day of each month to see if there is any parking available.

The self-study pamphlets are available for those who wish to volunteer to work in free tax information sessions. Test dates will be announced later. Please contact the SBA for sign-up.

Thank You Letter

To The Law School Community:

I want to thank the faculty, staff and students for the card and the "gift" inside it. i was really touched by your caring and concern. About two more weeks of radiation therapy to go. I hope to return to work by March. Looking forward to seeing everybody. I hope all of you students passed your exams.

Sincerely,
Mike Millerup,
"your janitor"
